An unusual Chamberlain's Worcester small plate

A large portion of this service is displayed at Clarence House, London

The title King of Hanover was held but rarely used by King George III
