A rare Chelsea vine moulded dish

A rare Chelsea oval dish, painted in coloured enamels with a spray of flowers and leaves, and scattered flowers, the border moulded in bold relief with grapes and vines, naturalistically decorated in coloured enamels, 9 1/2" wide, circa 1758, no mark

Provenance; A Titled English Private Collection, acquired from Albert Amor 18th January 1989

This model, although often seen at Derby, and occasionally Bow, is extremely rare in Chelsea
