An early Worcester hexagonal cream boat

An early Worcester hexagonal cream boat, with angular loop handle, painted in Chinese famille rose palette with a pagoda in a river landscape, within a leaf and scroll moulded cartouche, the reverse painted with flowers, the underside of the lip moulded with a geranium leaf, the interior painted with four precious objects, 4 3/4" long, circa 1752-53, no mark

The moulding on this cream boat, particularly the 'sunburst', is a rare variant of that normally found
