A superb pair of Barr, Flight and Barr Worcester vases

A superb pair of Barr, Flight and Barr Worcester flared vases, each with two fixed gilt ring handles, brilliantly painted in coloured enamels with a basket of flowers and leaves, on a stone ledge, within a gilt square canted panel, on a salmon ground decorated in gilt with an all-over star design, with Greek-key borders, on round base, 5" high, circa 1805-10, script mark in brown beneath a crown, and inscribed 'Manufacturers to Their Majesties and The Royal Family'

See Henry Sandon, Flight and Barr Worcester Porcelain, 1783-1840, page 80, plate 64, for a rare garniture, including a pair of vases of this form
