A rare Worcester round porringer

A rare Worcester round porringer, the two leaf moulded loop handles with applied flower head, leaf and tendril upper terminals, the interior printed in black by Robert Hancock with Les Garçons Chinois, picked out in coloured enamels, the spirally fluted exterior painted with scattered leaves and buds, beneath an osier moulded band, 7" diameter overall, circa 1757-58, no mark

This form is extremely rare in English porcelain
