A fine Worcester coffee cup and saucer

A fine Worcester coffee cup and saucer, from the Stormont Service, the cup with notched loop handle, boldly painted in turquoise and gilt with drapery swags, suspended from bows, gilt dentil borders, circa 1775, no marks

Provenance; Sir George Allen Collection

Two versions of this distinctive service are known; this version in turquoise and gilt, believed to have been ordered by the Seventh Viscount Stormont, and a puce and gilt version, each almost certainly a single service
