A good pair of Bow models of pugs

A good pair of Bow models of recumbent pugs, in the white, each wearing a collar, the rectangular cushion base with boldly tasselled corners, 5" wide, circa 1752, each incised beneath with various characters

See A Treasury of Bow, Ceramics and Glass Circle of Australia Loan Exhibition, 2000-2001, number 5, for a similar model. The incised characters beneath the current models are uncommon
