An important pair of Worcester wine coolers

An important pair of Worcester wine coolers, of straight sided form, each with two finely modelled shell shaped handles, painted in coloured enamels with festoons of flowers and leaves, within gilt 'C' scroll, flower and leaf cartouches, on a blue scale ground, on spreading foot, 7 5/8" high, circa 1770, blue fret marks

Worcester wine coolers of this form, based on a Sevres 9rigninsl, are extremely rare. Another pair, from the Zorensky Collection, was sold Bonhams, London, 23rd February 2005, lot 173
